

TRANSFER AND ENTREPRENEUR CENTRE

Prototype work station

The connected prototype work stations serve the invention and technical realization. Smaller and larger product ideas are tested for technical feasibility and built directly as first prototypes. Various 3D printers, CNC milling and injection molding machines are available for this purpose. For the machining of finished parts and the implementation of electronic components, a variety of fine tools are available.