Farewell to Dr.-Ing. Sylvia Springer

21.05.2019 -

On May 21, 2019 the time had come: Dr.-Ing. Sylvia Springer has entered into her well-deserved retirement. After more than forty years of membership in the Otto-von-Guericke University Magdeburg its predecessor institutions, will Ms. Springer be able to devote herself exclusively to her private life.

In particular, Ms. Springer helped build the OVGU's Technology Transfer Center (TTZ) and managed it over many years. As a result, she left a lasting impression on the employees. Her services will not be forgotten at the TUGZ.

The entire team of the TUGZ wishes Ms. Springer all the best for the next stage of her life and much joy in her future tasks!
