MakerLabs: Start-up workshops at the OVGU

This is the place where makers, hackers and hobbyists meet to realize their ideas and to inspire each other. If your life is all about DIY and you like to share your knowledge, become part of this community. In the high-tech workshops of the OVGU Magdeburg, you will find various tools for the realization of your ideas as well as the know-how for successful business ideas.

What do you have to do now? Just have a look in the overview which MakerLab suits your requirements and contact the appropriate contact person.
